Who we are

Who is providing this notice? Conservation Resource Partners, LLC, a registered investment adviser.

What we do

How does Conservation Resources protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We maintain safeguards that comply with federal standards to protect nonpublic personal information of our customers, including procedures to assure appropriate access to, and use of, information about our customers.

How does Conservation Resources collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or subscribe for an interest in a Conservation Resource fund (buy securities from us)
- Give us your contact information or show us your driver's license
- Give us instructions regarding your interest in a Conservation Resource fund (where to send money)

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes-information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you, unless the affiliate has a pre-existing business relationship with you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing (see below for more on your rights under state law).
